

JSMobile New Pricing 2024

We would like to announce some changes to our pricing structure for JSMobile. These adjustments reflect our commitment to providing you with an even better and more robust experience. Below you'll find details of the pricing adjustments, along with important information about how these changes might impact you.

What You Need to Know

As per Atlassian's latest policies

- Existing customers get a 60-day price override so they can pay the lower price when they renew or purchase the app. They can do this as long as they're on the same user tier and the quote is created before the renewal override date (60 days from the price change).
- Existing evaluators in the Cloud can also pay the lower price if purchased before the evaluation expired.
